

Introduction Speech Assignment Details

This first speech is a credit/no-credit assignment. If you are here and you do it, you will receive credit. If you do not, you will not receive credit. Simple!

Below is a list of topics you may choose to cover in your partner introductions. Feel free to use as many of these as you would like and you may also include any additional information about your partner that you feel is relevant.

You will have 2-3 minutes to introduce your partner so please be mindful of the time limit.

Most importantly...relax and have fun!

- Historical overview – where are you from and how did you end up here?
- Likes and dislikes
- Hobbies and interests
- Significant life experiences
- Stories about you
- Goals and aspirations (academic, professional, personal)
- Fears and concerns
- Pet peeves
- Values
- Beliefs
- What makes you unique?
- What motivates you, what inspires you?
- Music, movies, TV, etc.
- Talents and skills
- Anything else you feel is important to share with the class